

Here's a Great TV Opportunity from

in Carlsbad, September 26-27, 2009

BULLetin ...

From Hawaiian ukulele strummers to Japanese drummers, the 2009 ArtSplash Chalk Art Festival has it all! The Pacific Ocean panorama on Armada Drive in Carlsbad creates a picture-perfect venue for this free, family-oriented September 26-27 event ... a true community celebration for arts education.

With dozens of chalk art paintings coming to life on the street and a masterpiece created on a dirty car, multiple forms of interactive art will be featured, and that's no bull! Wait ... there WILL be a bull, created by Oceanside artist Joey Chavez out of recycled shoes.

Check out ArtSplash at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JErSPIm0Vmc> and contact Publicist Marilyn Campbell at 760-439-3716 or wrote4fn@cox.net if you'd like to have a small contingent of ArtSplashers visit your TV studio prior to the festival ... or if you'd like to come tape a portion of your show at our event.

You'll see why it's the fab fall Carlsbad classic everyone's chalking' about!

We won't steer you wrong!
